

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION INSTRUCTIONS

Please read the information below prior to completing the Beneficiary Designation Form. The Teachers' Pension Plan Text ("Plan Text") provides more detailed information and can be found at www.tppcnl.ca.

- Print clearly using blue or black ink (unless completed and printed from online)
- Do not cross-out, do not use white out or attempt to erase, and
- Make NO stray marks or notes anywhere on the form.

The attached beneficiary designation form is a LEGAL DOCUMENT that will be used to determine beneficiaries for your Teacher's Pension. You may wish to seek professional advice for estate planning purposes.

Before completing the beneficiary designation form, it is important to note that this form will be void if you do not follow the instructions outlined. A checklist is provided below to help ensure all required information has been completed prior to submission.

In accordance with the Plan Text, upon your death a survivor benefit is made payable to your Principal Beneficiary (which means your spouse or cohabiting partner):

- If no Principal Beneficiary, then equally to dependent children.
- If no Principal Beneficiary or dependent children, then equally to other dependent(s) who were dependent on you by reason of mental or physical infirmity.

Dependent children eligible to receive a survivor benefit as per the Plan Text are:

- Children up to age 18 years of age.
- Children between 18 and 24 years of age if they are in continuous full-time attendance at a recognized educational institution. Proof of full-time student status will be required at the time of any claim.
- Infirm child (regardless of age).

Other dependents eligible to receive a survivor benefit as per the Plan Text are parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters or grandchildren who are financially dependent on you for support and are:

- Under 18 years of age,
- Under 24 years of age and in full-time attendance at a recognized educational institution, or
- Mentally or physically infirmed (regardless of age).

In addition to the survivor benefit there may be a residual death benefit payable after all eligible survivor benefits have been paid. You can designate a beneficiary to receive these benefits.

Any person is eligible for designation as your Designated Beneficiary, including Dependent Children, Other Dependents, other children, other family members, friends, corporations, registered charities, and trusts. Survivor benefits for Dependent Children and Other Dependents are only payable during the eligible survivor benefit period and may be a small amount depending on their age at your death. If your desire is for your Dependent Children or Other Dependents to also receive any residual death benefits after completion of any applicable survivor benefits, those individuals must also be named as a Designated Beneficiary.

Principal Beneficiaries and Dependent Children do not have to be designated as your Designated Beneficiary to receive survivor benefits. Other Dependents are only entitled to survivor benefits if they are designated as a Designated Beneficiary.
